

Over the next couple decades, the number of older adults is projected to increase by 69%, from 56 million to 94 million*, positioning TubToday as a great choice for business ownership. As a TubToday owner you will receive VIP training and on-boarding.

The two-week training program will provide franchisees all the necessary tools to flourish in this expanding market. Franchisees will be provided effective marketing and sales strategies as well as full-training on services, products and installation.

Now Offering Franchises!

- Recession and inflation resistant industry catering to needs not wants
- Not an impulse or luxury purchase in most instances
- Strategic value-added services and pricing to take competitors out of most competitive bid scenarios

A TubToday franchise owner impacts its community with home renovations that allow customers to age safely and independently in their homes. In addition, a line of 1-2 day rapid bathroom remodels focused on the bath and shower wet space.
